

The Department of Criminal Justice and Criminology at Georgia Southern University seeks a visiting instructor for the upcoming spring 2020 semester (January 2020 through May 2020). This position is located primarily on the Armstrong campus. The successful candidate may be asked to teach both in the classroom and online.

At Georgia Southern, visiting instructors normally teach fifteen credit hours per semester and hold regular office hours. All visiting positions are non-tenure track. The appointment is for the spring 2020 semester with the possibility of a one-year extension pending funding and satisfactory performance. The extension year would be a terminal year, without exceptions.

Required Qualifications:

- Earned master's or doctoral degree in Criminal Justice or Criminology, or in a closely related field with at least 18 graduate semester hours in Criminal Justice or Criminology, by January 1, 2020.
- Must be authorized to work in the United States for the duration of employment without assistance from the institution.

Preferred Qualifications:

- College or university teaching experience.
- Strengths or experience in Introduction to Corrections, Introduction to Policing, Criminal Justice Administration, and Evidence and Procedure.

We will begin screening applications as they are received. The position starts on January 1, 2020. Interested candidates should send a complete application, consisting of a letter addressing the qualifications cited above, including a verifiable statement regarding authorization to work unassisted in the US; a curriculum vitae; and the names, addresses, telephone numbers, and email addresses of at least three professional references.

Contact person:       Dr. Adam M. Bossler
                                  Georgia Southern University
                                  Electronic mail: abossler@georgiasouthern.edu
                                  Telephone: 912-344-3500

Georgia is an open records state. Georgia Southern is an AA/EO institution. Individuals who need reasonable accommodations under the ADA to participate in the search process should contact the Vice Provost.