AMERICAN JOURNAL OF CRIMINAL JUSTICE GRADUATE MANAGING EDITOR (GME) POSITION DEPARTMENT OF CRIMINOLOGY AND CRIMINAL JUSTICE

The AMERICAN JOURNAL OF CRIMINAL JUSTICE, housed in the Department of Criminology and Criminal Justice at the University of North Florida, invites applications for the Graduate Managing Editor position to begin January 2022. The position is intended for an incoming Masters student and should sustain funding throughout the masters course of study. This position offers 12 months (20 hrs/week) of funding, travel, and professional development opportunities including participation in sponsored research initiatives.

The Graduate Managing Editor works under the supervision of the Editor and assumes primary responsibility for the daily operations of the AJCJ Editorial office. The position provides a full in-state tuition waiver and a full stipend for Spring 2022 and beyond. This is an excellent opportunity for students who intend to pursue an academic career to learn the discipline and acquire hands-on experience. The hire will be required to be enrolled full time in the MSCJ program (9 credit hours), may not hold outside employment, and must physically be in Jacksonville during Spring 2022. Applicants must maintain a minimum of 3.25 GPA in the MSCJ program at UNF in order to qualify.

If you have a student interested in applying, please contact AJCJ and/or have them submit:

- 1) a letter expressing interest and describing qualifications for the position as well as any specific research interests (i.e., in what area(s) of criminal justice/criminology are you most interested?)
- 2) a curriculum vitae/resume
- 3) an unofficial transcript, and
- 4) one letter of recommendation from a former instructor or supervisor supporting for the position.

Send all applications materials via email to:

Dr. J. Mitchell Miller, Editor
American Journal of Criminal Justice
Department of Criminology and Criminal Justice
1 UNF Drive
