Position Description

Assistant Professor Term - Department of Criminal Justice

The Department of Criminal Justice at the University of Louisville invites applicants for an assistant professor term appointment. The Department offers a Bachelor of Science, Master of Science (including a web-based program) and Ph.D. in Criminal Justice. As a part of the College of Arts and Sciences, the Department also houses the Southern Police Institute.

We seek candidates prepared to teach face-to-face and online undergraduate courses who are committed to social justice and community-based learning. The teaching load consists of 4 courses per semester, excluding summer.

Minimum qualifications: a Ph.D. in Criminal Justice or a related field by the time of appointment is preferred as well as a history of effective teaching at the college level. A candidate possessing only a JD will not be considered.

The position is a one-year assistant professor term appointment beginning August 1, 2022 and subject to budget approval.

The selected applicants must be able to teach a combination of the following courses:

- CJ 200 Crime and Justice in the U.S.
- CJ 306 Criminal Procedure
- CJ 360 Juvenile Justice
- CJ 395 Criminal Law and Evidence

Applicants must apply on-line and attach one document containing (1) cover letter, (2) curriculum vitae, and (3) a statement of teaching philosophy. Applicants should have three letters of recommendation sent directly to the committee chair, Dr. Elizabeth L. Grossi, Term Search Committee Chair, 226 Brigman Hall, Department of Criminal Justice, University of Louisville, Louisville, KY 40292 or grossi@louisville.edu. Review of applications will begin upon receipt and continue until the position is filled.

The deadline to apply is April 4, 2022, at 7:00pm EST.

For additional information regarding the position, you may contact Dr. Elizabeth L. Grossi at (502) 852-0381 or grossi@louisville.edu.
