

Assistant Professor of Criminology

About this position:

The Department of Social and Behavioral Sciences at Florida Southern College invites applications for tenure track appointment as a full-time, Assistant Professor of Criminology (#868). The position will begin in August 2024.

About our ideal candidate:

A Ph.D. in criminology or criminal justice by the time of the appointment is required; A.B.D. will be considered if completion is assured prior to the beginning of Fall 2024 semester. The selected candidate will teach three 4-credit hour courses per semester. The ideal candidate will be expected to teach Introduction to Criminal Justice and Criminology. Preference will be given to candidates who can also teach Judicial Processes / Criminal Law (with particular emphasis on the Impact of U.S. Supreme Court decisions on the criminal justice process), Policing, and Juvenile Delinquency. Prior teaching experience in these areas will be advantageous. The successful candidate will possess a passion for student-centered learning and student engagement, collegiality, and concern for students, all of which the candidate's application should demonstrate. In addition, the role includes participation in academic advising, collaborative research with students, scholarship, professional development, and campus governance and involvement.

To apply:

Candidates should go to: <https://www.flsouthern.edu/campus-offices/offices-directory/office-of-human-resources> and click "Search Positions" to find Assistant Professor of Criminology (#868).

Review of applications will begin on December 1, 2023, and will continue until position is filled. The following items are required: letter of application, curriculum vitae, statement of teaching philosophy, statement of relevant research activities/interests, transcripts, and contact information for three references.

About Florida Southern College:

The College's health and wellness plans along with generous paid time-off benefits are in addition to rewarding employee benefits such as the tuition grant and 403(b) plan.

The employee tuition grant is a remarkable benefit that covers the cost of 100% of the College's tuition for dependent children of faculty and staff who have been employed with the college fulltime for one year. Employees can also take advantage of the benefit for themselves.

The Defined Contribution Retirement Plan is a 403(b) plan in which the college automatically contributes 7% of the eligible employee's earnings into a retirement fund whether the employee chooses to participate or not. The account has a comprehensive investment portfolio and allows the employee to control their investment choices. At 6 years of service, the employer contribution amount is elevated to 10%. Employees can choose to participate through pre-tax payroll deductions when ready!

Florida Southern College is committed to diversity and inclusion in hiring, campus life, and intellectual engagement and welcomes applications from all interested candidates. The college actively seeks a wide variety of candidates and enthusiastically looks to diversify our workforce.

Florida Southern College has a strong commitment to the principles of equal employment opportunity. The college recruits, hires, trains, transfers, promotes and compensates individuals and makes all personnel decisions without regard to race, color, religion, age, sex, sexual orientation, national origin or ancestry, marital status, veteran status, or physical or mental disability unrelated to an individual's ability to perform the job, in accordance with applicable law.

Founded in 1883, Florida Southern College is the oldest private college in the state. The College maintains its commitment to academic excellence through 70+ undergraduate programs and distinctive graduate programs in business administration, education, nursing, and physical therapy. Florida Southern has a 14:1 student-to-faculty ratio, is an award-winning national leader in engaged learning, and boasts 30 NCAA Division II National Championships. Florida Southern is ranked at #8 among the "Best Regional Universities in the South" by U.S. News & World Report in its 2022 "Best Colleges" guide and is included in The Princeton Review's 2022 Best 387 Colleges guide and the "Fiske Guide to Colleges 2022." The 2021-2022 Colleges of Distinction guidebook praises Florida Southern's AACSB accredited Barney Barnett School of Business and Free Enterprise alongside the College's School of Education and its Ann Blanton Edwards School of Nursing and Health Sciences. Poets&Quants, U.S. News & World Report, Fortune, and The Princeton Review further laud the Barney Barnett School of Business and Free Enterprise and the Ann Blanton Edwards School of Nursing and Health Sciences as foremost programs in the nation for business and nursing education. Home to the world's largest single-site collection of Frank Lloyd Wright architecture, FSC has appeared on The Princeton Review's top 20 "Most Beautiful Campus" national listing for 12 consecutive years. Connect with Florida Southern College.